

Anna Toy Joins Pentegra Retirement Services As Regional Director In Northern California

White Plains, NY, March 7, 2016 — Pentegra Retirement Services announced today that Anna Toy has joined the organization as Regional Director for Pentegra's qualified retirement plan sales. Reporting to Pete Swisher, Pentegra's Senior Vice President of National Sales, Toy will spearhead the company's business development efforts in Northern California.

According to Swisher, "Anna is an impressive professional and we are very pleased that she has joined our organization. Her excellent track record of success, deep knowledge of qualified retirement plan solutions, and strong relationships will be instrumental in marketing Pentegra's qualified retirement plan and fiduciary outsourcing solutions."

Toy has over 20 years of experience in the financial services industry, having focused on retirement plans for the past 10 years. An accomplished retirement services professional, Toy brings a great deal of knowledge about the retirement services industry and will be key in working to expand the organization's scope to grow the business throughout the region.

Prior to joining Pentegra, Toy held similar roles at Principal Financial, Ascensus and ADP.

Toy said, "I am excited to join a growing sales team at Pentegra and to help advisors and consultants with the opportunity to effectively grow their businesses through fiduciary outsourcing."

Toy received her Bachelor of Science in finance from San Francisco State University and maintains FINRA Series 7, 63 and California Life, Health and Ethics license.
