

EntrepreneurShares Launches Publicly Traded ETF with Key Investor Pentegra

Pentegra's SEC registered investment advisor firm, Pentegra Investors Inc., led by Chief Investment Officer, Scott Stone, CFA, investigates and effectively chooses best-in-class investment managers for its $12 billion AUM. Today, Pentegra's investment platform includes approximately 75 public and private managers.

One of those managers is EntrepreneurShares, headed by Dr. Joel Shulman, a successful active US and International investment fund manager of recent years. EntrepreneurShares has created a new style of investing that employs proprietary models to identify entrepreneurial companies, based on the premise that visionary entrepreneurs have significant economic incentives to deliver strong performance. EntrepreneurShares invests in visionary leaders all over the world who place high value on innovation, transparency, and stakeholder empowerment.

The Pentegra Defined Benefit Plan for Financial Institutions was an early seed investor in certain EntrepreneurShares funds and separately managed accounts and continues to be significantly invested.

To commemorate this event, EntrepreneurShares and Pentegra, rang the closing bell at the NY Stock Exchange on Monday afternoon, November 13th, 2017. The bell-ringing ceremony is part of the celebration of Global Entrepreneurship Week.
