

Four Texas Banks Are New Clients of Pentegra Retirement Services

White Plains, NY, February 20, 2013 -- Pentegra Retirement Services has announced that four Texas banks have become new clients of the White Plains, New York- based retirement plan provider. The banks are: Comanche National Corporation, Comanche, TX; The First National Bank of Eagle Lake, Eagle Lake, TX; Powell State Bank, Powell, TX and Sundown State Bank in Levelland, TX. Pentegra will be administering each bank's 401(k) plan. The banks have become members of Pentegra's multiple employer defined contribution plan.

According to Pentegra President Robert C. Albanese, "We are pleased that we currently serve as the retirement plan provider for 25 banks throughout Texas and are privileged to have earned the business of these four new Texas clients. We look forward to serving their needs for many years to come."

Pentegra's comprehensive services offered through its multiple employer plan as well as the fiduciary protection offered through the plan, are some of the key reasons cited for these companies choosing Pentegra.
