

PENTEGRA RETIREMENT SERVICES WINS “COMMITTEE FAVORITE AWARD” FROM NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF FEDERAL CREDIT UNIONS

White Plains, New York, August 1, 2013 -- The National Association of Federal Credit Unions (NAFCU) honored Pentegra Retirement Services with a “Committee Favorite Award” at its 46th Annual Conference and Solutions Expo. The award recognizes solutions that have shown great potential and promise to positively impact credit unions.

According to Liz Santos, Director of Marketing, NAFCU Services Corporation, “The Committee Favorite award recognizes Pentegra’s history of advancing the credit union mission through providing exceptional service and returns. Pentegra has proven and trusted services that offer peace of mind to credit unions.”

Pentegra is NAFCU’s exclusive preferred partner for qualified retirement plan solutions for credit unions. Pentegra’s retirement products were chosen after a thorough review and analysis by NAFCU Services and their Credit Union Executive Advisory Committee, based on a wide range of factors, including Pentegra’s ability to meet the needs of credit unions with a full array of retirement product offerings, industry expertise and credit union-focused solutions.

Rich Rausser, Senior Vice President of Client Services for Pentegra said, “We are pleased with this recognition and that our commitment to serving credit unions by doing what we do best, is being honored. Pentegra has been widely recognized by industry partners who are keenly aware of the increasing need for enduring and trusted retirement services providers. We take this role very seriously and appreciate NAFCU’s attention.”
