

PENTEGRA RETIREMENT SERVICES AND CORPORATION FOR AMERICAN BANKING PRESENT FREE WEBINAR APRIL 25

412(e)(3) Fully Insured Defined Benefit Plans for Successful Small Business and Professional Practice Owners

White Plains, New York, April 10, 2013 -- On Thursday, April 25, 2013, 2:00 PM to 3:00 PM (ET), Pentegra Retirement Services and Corporation for American Banking will hold a free webinar entitled 412(e)(3) Fully Insured Defined Benefit Plans for Successful Small Business and Professional Practice Owners, led by speaker Mary Read, CPC, QPA, the National Director of Qualified Plan Marketing at Alliance Benefit Group—Pentegra.

412(e)(3) Fully Insured Defined Benefit Plans are a great way to attract and retain small business & professional practice owners. This offering will set you apart from your competition and generate significant revenue for your wealth management or trust department.

The webinar will focus on the advantages of a fully insured pension plan for successful small business & professional practice owners, including fully guaranteed retirement benefit; substantial tax deductible contributions structure to benefit the owner; guaranteed death benefits; and predictable costs. It will also include how to identify a prospect; and how Pentegra can work with you and your client to establish a plan for success.

Mary Read CPC, QPA, is National Director of Qualified Plan Marketing at Alliance Benefit Group-Pentegra. A leading authority in qualified retirement plans with 30 years' experience, Mary has an extensive background in marketing and plan design. She is a frequent speaker on qualified plans and is the current National Chair for the Qualified Section of the Society of Financial Service Professionals. Mary holds the prestigious Certified Pension Consultant (CPC) and Qualified Plan Administrator (QPA) designations from the American Society of Pension Professionals and Actuaries.
