Maegen 'Meg' Chaudry Joins Pentegra as 403(b) Consultant

White Plains, NY, June 26, 2017 -- Pentegra announced today that Maegen 'Meg' Chaudry has joined the organization as 403(b) Consultant, responsible for managing relationships with Pentegra's non-ERISA 403(b) clients and advisors throughout Texas.

According to Chuck Coldwell, Pentegra's Vice President-National Director, Consulting and BOLI Services, "We are excited to have Meg join our team. Her combination of industry experience, relationship management skills and ability to cultivate advisor relationships will benefit all of our business partners."

Chaudry brings a wealth of experience to Pentegra. She began her career with Edward Jones as a financial advisor in Houston, Texas. She went on to serve as an Area Sales Representative for American Funds, working with financial advisors and intermediaries for pensions, corporations and retirement plans to provide practice management and investment services to help protect and grow assets. Most recently, she led a dedicated Sales Team for Legg Mason and its affiliates, where she was responsible for creating and maintaining relationships to drive sales across 13 territories.

Chaudry said, "This is an exciting opportunity and I am pleased to be part of the Pentegra organization. I look forward to working in tandem with Pentegra's advisor partners to connect with clients and participants to help expand our non-ERISA 403(b) presence throughout Texas."

Chaudry is a graduate of Texas A&M University, where she attended the Mays Business School and earned a B. S. in business marketing. She also holds FINRA Series 7, 66 and insurance licenses.
