Pentegra Names Lance Kesterson Regional Senior Vice President

White Plains, NY, April 9, 2018 -- Today, Pentegra, a leading provider of retirement plan and fiduciary outsourcing solutions, named Lance Kesterson Regional Senior Vice President, TPA Services. Kesterson will spearhead Pentegra's TPA operations, overseeing strategy, operational effectiveness, advisor and client experience, and business development efforts.

Pentegra's TPA divisions in Blacklick, Ohio, Charlotte, North Carolina and Greenville, South Carolina will report to Kesterson, who will be based in Blacklick, Ohio.

Pentegra Senior Vice President and Chief Operations Officer Michael Palmiere said, "Lance is an accomplished and talented industry professional and we are delighted to welcome him to the Pentegra team. He brings a unique combination of expertise in retirement plan administration and service, client relations, sales and project management to Pentegra."

Prior to joining Pentegra, Kesterson served as Senior Vice President at United Retirement Plan Consultants, Inc., where he was responsible for directing and executing national sales and marketing strategies. Previously, he served in numerous roles at Nationwide Insurance, including Vice President and Segment Chief Financial Officer, Retirement Plans, where he was responsible for all aspects of segment operating plans and financial results for public and private retirement plans; and Vice President, Plan Administration and Participant Service – Government Retirement Plans, and Officer – Project Management and Product Delivery.

Palmiere added, "I am confident that Lance will help us propel our TPA operations to the next level as we continue to expand our niche 3(16) fiduciary administrative capabilities and build even broader relationships with advisors and platform providers to gain greater market share."

Kesterson holds an MBA and B.S. in Finance and Accounting from The Ohio State University.
