Pentegra appoints new president/CEO

PALASH GHOSH

Eric Wietsma was named president and CEO of Pentegra Services, succeeding John E. Pinto, who will retire at the end of June.

Eric Wietsma was named president and CEO of Pentegra Services, succeeding John E. Pinto, who will retire at the end of June.

Mr. Wietsma currently serves as senior vice president and chief operations officer of Pentegra, according to a news release Wednesday. Pentegra is a provider of retirement plan and fiduciary outsourcing solutions.

During Mr. Pinto's tenure at the company, stretching back to 1991, the company nearly doubled its assets under administration to $13 billion, the news release said. Mr. Pinto was first named Pentegra's president and CEO in 2013.

Mr. Wietsma joined the firm in February 2022.

No successor to Mr. Wietsma as COO has yet been named, a spokeswoman said in an email.
